US Ambassador to Estonia Spoke about Dreams

US Ambassador and her husband Mr. Wells visited Vinni Municipality yesterday. Ambassador met the students of Vinni-Pajusti Gymnasium and pointed out the importance of dreams in life. "You are young, you must dream, I had many dreams when I was young," Miliza Korjus' daughter, Melissa Wells said. "My dreams have come true".

Ambassador Wells has been here for four months and one of her dreams has been to get to know Estonia. "I enjoy moments outside Tallinn," Her Excellency said and also that to her mind meeting people was most important. She visited Lääne-Viru County for the first time.

According to her there is no big difference between US and Estonian students. She was really impressed by the fact that 75% of Vinni-Pajusti students continued their studies in state-owned universities.

Melissa Wells visited Lääne-Viru County by the invitation of Mr. Jüri Vanajuur, director of Vinni-Pajusti Gymnasium, she was a guest at the county's English olympiade.

US Ambassador to Estonia Melissa Wells also met Mr. Hannes Mets, the Chief of Vinni Municipality, with who she toured in the largest municipality unit where she also visited Vöhu Winery.

USA suursaadik rääkis Vinnis unistustest

USA suursaadik Melissa Wells koos abikaasaga külastas eile Vinni valda, kus rõhutas noortele, kui tähtsad on unistused.

"Te olete noored, teil peavad olema unistused, nagu olid minulgi, mil mina noor olin," ütles kuulsal ooperilaulja Miliza Korjuse järglane Melissa Wells kohtumisel Vinni-Pajusti Gümnaasiumi õpilastega. "Minu unistused on täitunud."

Neli kuud Eestis viibinud suursaadiku üheks unistuseks on olnud ka Eestimaa tundmaõppimine, kuigi eesti keelt pole ta veel suutnud selgeks õppida. "Mulle meeldib Tallinnast väljas käia," ütles tema ekstsellents, pidades tähtsaks inimestega kohtumisi. Lääne-Virumaal käis USA suursaadik esimest korda.

Külalise arvates ei ole vahet USA ja Eesti õpilastel, kuid talle avaldas muljet, kui kuulis, et tervelt 75 protsenti Vinni-Pajusti kooli lõpetanuist pääses mullu riiklikesse kõrgkoolidesse.

Melissa Wells käis Virumaal Vinni-Pajusti Gümnaasiumi direktori Jüri Vanajuure kutsel, olles külaliseks maakondlikul inglise keele aineolümpiaadil Vinnis.

USA suursaadik käis ka Vinni vallavanema Hannes Metsaga ringreisil maakonna suurimas omavalitsusüksuses, kusjuures üheks reisihiiks oli Võhu veinitehas. □
